SATURDAY

Jumna Mission, Allahabad

Ernest preaches the New Years' sermon in the Jumna church.

Helen's + Junior's coughs continue with unabated vigor.

Ernest consults Col. Maclaren about baby Frances who has a severe bronchial cold with spasms of coughing + choking. I am up a good deal of the night with her.

SUNDAY
2 AFTER CHRISTMAS

Jumna Mission, Allahabad.

Ernest leads Sunday School + Christian Endeavor of preaches in the Chowk.

Frances has had a bad night. I am up + down with her all night. We do not dare leave her a moment because of the severe + sudden choking spells.
While Ernest stays with her I go for a short walk with Junior + Helen.

Mr. Weiser calls with Miss Inglis, Miss Adams + Mr. Robinson.

MONDAY

Jumna Mission, Allahabad

I drive over into the city & do a little shopping. Helen & Junior go with me.

Frances has a bad night wakeful & coughing & choking all night. I am up with her till 3:00 A.M. then Ernest goes on duty.

Mrs. Avey comes over in the evening.

TUESDAY

Jumna Mission Allahabad.
I walk over to Mr. Paul's with the children & order a pair of sandals for Helen. We stop in to see Mrs. Janvier & Mrs. Manry.
Mrs. Ewing calls to enquire about the baby.
She has a quieter night with less frequent coughing spells.
Helen & Junior vomit after coughing which makes us think their trouble may be whooping cough.
Frances worse in evening. Ernest & I do not undress all night.

WEDNESDAY

Jumna Mission, Allahabad

Frances has a hard day with frequent & severe coughing spells.

After dinner while Ernest is over at the College the three children begin coughing & vomiting all at the same time.

Ernest & I do not undress at all for the night.

THURSDAY

Jumna Mission, Allahabad.

The baby has a quieter day & seems better.

I take a short walk out in the Compound.

Helens & Jummins coughs are increasing in violence. They vomit several times during the night.

FRIDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad

The children all have a hard day.

Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Griff. & Mrs. Higginbottom call.

I take a short drive.

Mr. & Mrs. Avey come over after dinner. Mr. Avey fixes up my oil heater.

SATURDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad,

The coughs & colds continue.
I walk over to Mrs. Janvier's with Helen & Junior.

Dr. & Mrs. Lucas call.

Helen & Junior have frequent coughing & vomiting spells during the night.
I keep a kettle of water & eucalyptus steaming in the bed-room all night.

SUNDAY
1 after Epiphany

Jumna Mission
Allahabad
Mrs. Ewing calls with
Miss Morgan of the So.
Baptist Mission.

I attend the evening church service.

Helen & Junior get thru the night with only a few hard coughing spells.
The baby has a hard time, she cries nearly all night. Ernest & I feel pretty much exhausted by morning.

MONDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad.

Spend the day as usual - caring for the sick children.

Write a letter to Mrs. Henry Forman.

The baby has a better night.

TUESDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad.

I walk over to the Students' Cooperative Store, taking Helen & Junior with me.

I have a bad cold & throat.

The baby is fretful all day. She has a better night.

WEDNESDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad

The baby seems more choked up today than usual! She has frequent hard coughing spells.

Miss Chatterji calls.

THURSDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad.

A monkey-wala performs for the children.

A woman without a tongue, asks for alms. There are 5 others like her in the family. Two of the daughters are also deaf & dumb; and one of them has no hands nor feet.

Col. MacLaren calls & prescribes for the children.

FRIDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad

I drive down to the Hospital to see Rachel. She does not seem much better.

Col. McLaren says I have whooping-cough also. He calls again to see the baby and thinks she is getting on all right.

Jumna Mission
Allahabad.

Mabel comes over for a little while & visits with me on the verandah.

Baby Frances has colic or some other pains & is very fretful. We are up with her a good part of the night.

SUNDAY
2 AFTER EPIPHANY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad.

The baby's cough is better but she seems to have colic. she is very fretful all day.

I take a short walk out on the bridge.

MONDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad.

I drive over into town with the children. At Sharvorji's, Junior breaks a candy-jar which costs me Rs 1/8/-

The baby is still having pains in her stomach + gives me a bad night.

Mr. + Mrs. Avey come in after dinner.

TUESDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad.

Mrs. Lucas & Mrs.
Ewing call.

Ernest goes to tea
at Mrs. Simeon's.

The baby doesn't seem so well.

WEDNESDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad.

The baby is still very miserable; she cries nearly all day.

For a little fresh air toward evening I walk out with Ernest & watch a Hockey Match for a few minutes.

The baby has a better night than usual.

THURSDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad.

After breakfast I drive over into the city and do a little shopping. Helen & Junior go with me.

Mabel comes over toward evening.

FRIDAY

Jumna Mission
Allahabad.

Ernest's Birthday

Frances has a quiet, good day.

Sewing & Mending.

Station Prayer-meeting at Katra Mission House & Ernest goes.

We have the floors of drawing room & sitting room covered with China Matting.

Baby Frances smiles her first real smile.

SATURDAY

Jumna Mission

Rain
Ernest's anniversary letter comes in today's mail.
I write a letter to Georgia O. Sherwin.

I walk up to the country
service. Rev. McConnell preaches a splendid sermon on "The Power of Prayer as noted in the Church."
Matt. 18:19

Frances has a bad night,
she does not get to sleep
until 4:30 A.M.

MONDAY

Upper Woodstock
Landowne

Heavy rain all morning.
We feel a slight earth-quake, about noon.

I practise some songs with Miss Lee at Mrs. Smith's.

Frances is restless & fretful & feverish all day; I think she is cutting teeth. After lunch Helena goes to bed with sore throat & fever, 103°, a little flighty.
The right half of my face is hot, swollen & itchy - evidently the result of an insect bite, probably sandflies.

Mabel & Howard drop in.
Mrs. Stratton sends me a crocheted night gown yoke as an anniversary present.

TUESDAY

Upper Chardstock
Landour.
Helen is better, but she still has a temperature of 100°.

I go to Mussoorie shopping.
I sing two songs in a concert at the Hospital for the sick soldiers.

Billy seems to be coming down with a heavy cold.

WEDNESDAY

Upper Woodstock,
Rain — Laindowne.
Helen still has a little fever. Billy has a cold.

I walk up and call on Mrs. Forger; she shows me some of her husband's camera pictures; they are fine.

Frances has a hard attack of colic just before bedtime.

Helen has a slight rash which makes me suspect measles. Temperature 101.6

Upper Woodstock
Landour

I write to Rita Kittle.

I ask Mrs. Gould to come up & see Helen. She thinks she probably has German measles. Her temperature is not high; the rash is faint; she has a cough, but otherwise she seems very well. The case, if measles at all, appears to be a very light one.

I write a letter to Clark Currier.

Billy has a heavy cold; I keep him in bed all day.

FRIDAY

Upper Woodstock Landing.

Helen is feeling more miserable today; her rash is more distinct. her eyes are bloodshot and watery; her cough (with phlegm) is bad; her temperature 104. Mrs. Gould says there is no doubt now about her being real measles.

Billy is better, but he has a cold, cough & fever.

SATURDAY

Upper Woodstock

Helen's measles seem to have reached their worst stage. Her face & body is one mass of crimson lumpy spots and her eyes are discharging matter & bloody. Her temperature stays at about 104° all day. She is listless & sleepy.

Billy's cold & cough are bad & he has some fever & is in bed all afternoon.

Arthur Gillam's birthday.
